

MORE THAN JUST A STREET FESTIVAL

SQUARE ROOTS

JULY 12-14, 2024 • CHICAGO'S LINCOLN SQUARE

Square Roots brings together the best of Lincoln Square, Chicago, and beyond, with live music, family fun, local restaurants and vendors, and the biggest midwest craft beer selection of any Chicago street fest.

Our annual festival encourages community growth and provides critical fundraising for two legendary non-profits.

Have Fun & Do Good!

Square Roots is a truly local festival. Sponsorship dollars and on-site donations stay in the community.

Lincoln Square Ravenswood Chamber Of Commerce

Founded in 1948, LSRCC is a non-profit association of 250 businesses, institutions, and professionals in Chicago's Lincoln Square and Ravenswood neighborhoods. The LSRCC supports local business with events, workshops, and also acts as service provider for economic development in the neighborhood's vibrant shopping districts. Proceeds from Square Roots support community place-making projects, small business workshops and much more.

Old Town School of Folk Music

Chicago's Old Town School is the largest community school of the arts in the U.S. and a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing people together to learn, create, perform, and enjoy music and dance. Founded in 1957, OTSFM offers over 700 group classes weekly in a wide range of music, dance, and arts to people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds. Additionally, OTSFM hosts over 400 concerts and community events each year. Proceeds from Square Roots support scholarship programs and artist-in-residence programs at public schools around Chicagoland.
